Recreation News and Notes

Chief Aldrich has announced that the Adult Riflery Program will close for the summer and reopen in October. He reports that he was very pleased with this year's turnout and he will have it again next year.

The Golden Age Club meets today, 1:30 p.m., Potter Memorial. A program of games, square dancing and refreshment are on order. Last Thursday Mrs. Nellie Malcolm, Fern Furman and Pearl Poole were invited to attend the opening meeting of the Penfield Senior Citizens group. They spoke of their experiences here in Fairport and contributed a mighty big boost to the Penfield group to get their club going.

Last Thursday evening the Riflery awards were given out. Thirty-five boys and girls received their lapel pins designating marksman, sharpshooter and expert. Chief Aldrich was honored with a plaque for his work in the recreation program and with the youth of the community.

Several persons have expressed an interest in starting a model airplane club. This would be for flyers as well as modelers. All boys and girls, men and women, who would be interested in joining and forming this new special interest group please contact the Recreation office and register. Plans are on tap for this group to have a weekly workshop in the Nook, flying sessions each week and several special events each year. Volunteer leadership for this group is needed. Men or women interested in working with this group please register at the Recreation office.

The girls of the community have beat the bushes and their teams are now just about ready to go in the Fairport-Perinton Girl's Softball League. Teams are made up by the girls and the minimum age limit is seventh grade. Each team must have an adult manager and a team captain. Register your team at the Recreation office so that we may start playing as soon as possible. Games will take place on Monday nights beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Tumbling intramurals start on Monday. Tennis and softball will start a week from Monday.

Cheerleading tryouts were on Wednesday. Girls were picked for Varsity and Junior Varsity.

Men's Softball League is just about ready to go. A meeting of the players' managers will be held Thursday, May 1st in the Recreation Office at 7:30 p.m. League play is scheduled to get under way May 6th.

A meeting was held last Monday evening for the purpose of getting the 4th of July Celebration plans under way. Larry Chapman and Charles Heidelberger met an set up a meeting of representatives from all organizations in the community for the 15th of May at Potter Memorial, 8 p.m. Committees will be formed and the various phases of the day's program will be assigned to the various groups. From all indications this year's celebration promises to top last year's. Mr. Chapman is very enthusiastic about this year's celebration plans.

The Perinton Players will hold their rehearsal tonight at 8 p.m. in the Potter Memorial. They hope that you listened to yesterday's Louise Wilson's program when the Perinton Players Canvasser Training Skit was aired. It had been scheduled for today at 10 a.m. but Miss Wilson informed us that it was changed to Wednesday, too late to make the change in the paper.

For you people who use the Community Activities Calendar, the deadline date is Monday, the 28th, 5 p.m. Please be sure you have all your dates in by that time.

The Community Fund Drive is now in the middle of its campaign. Please be sure to give generously when your neighborhood canvasser calls on you. Remember, each dollar given returns its full measure to the community in leisure time values.

Nursery Slates Square Dance

Save a little of your spring energy to use having a good time with the rest of your friends at the Woodside Cooperative Nursery Square Dance being held May 2, 8:30 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. at the Congregational Church on Klem Road. Come as a pair, a single, or a square. Refreshments will be available. Mrs. Owens, Webster 831M, or Mrs. Sunderlin, Hubbard 2-0235, will have tickets or they may be purchased at the door.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Baxter of Bay Road recently spent a very pleasant spring holiday at St. Augustine Beach, Florida. The ten days of fun went all too quickly for Barbara and Billy Baxter for this was their first trip to the warm Southlands and their first view of the many wonderful sights.
